FLORIDA'S HISTORIC LEGISLATIVE REFORMS

Florida's property insurance market has experienced challenges over the past several years. Most of the primary cost drivers in the Florida property insurance market, including catastrophic claims, adverse loss reserve development, and higher reinsurance costs, are notably exacerbated by excessive and costly litigation. In response to challenges in the market, insurers historically passed these costs to the consumer by increasing premiums to cover losses and expenses, creating affordability challenges for consumers. In recent years, Florida has enacted historic and unprecedented reforms designed to promote market stability, Senate Bill 76 (2021), Senate Bill 2-A (2022), Senate Bill 2-D (2022), House Bill 837 (2023) and Senate Bill 7052 (2023).

Senate Bill 7052 enacts several consumer protection measures that further increase competition and accountability in Florida's property insurance market by: Clarifying that once a roof deductible is applied, no other deductible under the policy may be applied to any loss caused by the same covered peril; Tolling the time period for an individual deployed to a combat zone or combat support posting to file a property insurance claim for the duration of the deployment; Requiring property insurance mitigation discounts be updated at least every five years and requiring insurers to provide consumer-friendly information on their website describing hurricane mitigation discounts available to policyholders; Requiring liability insurers to follow proper claims handling practices on behalf of their policyholders and increasing penalties for insurers who don't; and Increasing the maximum administrative fines that may be levied by the OIR on insurance companies by 250 percent generally, and 500 percent for violations stemming from a state of emergency such as a hurricane.

House Bill 837 modifies the bad faith framework, eliminates one way attorney's fees and fee multipliers and ensures that Floridians can't be held liable for damages if the person suing is more at fault.

Senate Bill 2-D enacted pro-consumer measures to help alleviate rising insurance costs, to increase insurance claim transparency, and to crack down on frivolous lawsuits. Senate Bill 2-D pro-consumer measures includes $2 billion in reinsurance relief through the Reinsurance to Assist Policy program to benefit policy holders over the next two years, $150 million for the My Safe Florida Home Program to provide grants to Florida homeowners for mitigating their homes against disaster impacts, and prohibits insurance companies from denying coverage based on the age of a roof that is less than 15 years old.

Senate Bill 2-A is a comprehensive bill which implements litigation reforms and is intended to ensure policyholders have access to quality, affordable private market property insurance. Senate Bill 2-A eliminates one-way attorney fees for property insurance, strengthens the regulatory authority of OIR, establishes a new optional state reinsurance program, and requires insurers to more promptly communicate, investigate, and pay valid claims.

Building off previous reforms, Senate Bill 76 provided important regulatory changes designed to stabilize Florida's property market. Senate Bill 76 increased data transparency by establishing claims litigation data reporting requirements for personal and commercial residential property insurers and established protocols for the award of attorney fees in property insurance litigation. House Bill 7065 addressed AOB misuse and implemented significant reforms to AOBs by creating s. 627.7152, FS

FLORIDA'S NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL LEADERSHIP ROLE

Florida, overseeing one of the largest and most complex insurance markets globally, played an influential role within the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) in 2024, driven largely by its unique market challenges and extensive regulatory reforms.

LEADERSHIP AND REGULATORY AUTHORITY

Florida's Insurance Commissioner, Michael Yaworsky, held a key national position as a Co-Vice Chair of the Property and Casualty Insurance (C) Committee. This assignment placed Florida at the center of national discussions concerning one of the state's most important and closely watched issues—the homeowners insurance market.

A major milestone was the successful re-accreditation of the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR) by the NAIC during its Summer National Meeting. This accreditation confirms that the state's financial solvency oversight standards, including its examination and licensing capabilities, meet the NAIC's rigorous national benchmarks, reinforcing regulatory trust for multi-state insurers operating within Florida.

MARKET STABILITY AND AVAILABILITY

Due to its recovery and move toward market stability and the effects of high-severity weather events (including the highly active 2024 hurricane season), Florida's OIR was a primary voice in national conversations on reinsurance structures, capital adequacy, and reducing protection gaps.

Florida's recent legislative reforms, aimed at curtailing excessive litigation and drawing private capital back into the state, served as a crucial, real-world case study for other states facing similar market pressures. The NAIC monitored the success and challenges of these reforms closely, viewing Florida's efforts as a potential blueprint for other catastrophe-prone regions looking for regulatory solutions to stabilize coverage availability and affordability.

In essence, Florida's 2024 role was defined by contributing its unparalleled expertise in managing high-risk, high-cost property markets, while simultaneously demonstrating compliance with national standards through the critical NAIC accreditation process.

HURRICANE SEASON 2024

The 2024 Atlantic hurricane season will be remembered in Florida as one of the most intense, and complex in history, defined by three consecutive landfalls along the Gulf Coast — Hurricane Debby, Major Hurricane Helene, and Major Hurricane Milton.

The initial impact came in early August with Hurricane Debby, a Category 1 storm that made landfall near Steinhatchee in the Big Bend. Debby's primary threat was slow-moving, torrential rainfall, with some areas receiving up to 19 inches, causing widespread flash and riverine flooding across the Nature Coast and into central Florida, notably inundating parts of Manatee and Sarasota counties.

The true devastation began in late September with Major Hurricane Helene. After rapidly intensifying, Helene made a historic landfall on September 26th as a powerful Category 4 storm near Perry, Florida. This tied it as the strongest hurricane on record for the Big Bend region. Helene delivered a catastrophic storm surge, with levels exceeding 15 feet in parts of Taylor and Dixie counties, destroying countless homes and businesses in coastal towns like Cedar Key and Steinhatchee. Its immense wind field and fast forward motion caused widespread destruction across the Florida Panhandle and into the Southeast U.S. Inland, the high winds and rapid track led to extensive infrastructure damage and significant power outages across northern Florida.

The compounding blow arrived less than two weeks later with Major Hurricane Milton. Milton rapidly intensified to an extremely powerful Category 5 in the Gulf of Mexico before weakening to a Category 3 just before making landfall near Siesta Key in Sarasota County on October 9th. While a slight track shift spared the Tampa Bay area its worst-case scenario storm surge, Milton still produced a destructive surge of up to 10 feet along the coast south of the Bay, including Siesta Key and Charlotte Harbor.

Crucially, Milton's immense outer rain bands fueled a record-breaking tornado outbreak across the Florida Peninsula, spawning at least 47 confirmed tornadoes—the strongest tropical cyclone-related outbreak in state history. These twisters, including deadly EF-3s, caused fatalities and massive damage in populated areas like Fort Pierce and Palm Beach Gardens, far from the central eye. The combination of surge, wind, and inland tornadoes resulted in power outages for over 3 million customers and cemented the 2024 season as one of the deadliest and costliest for the state.

INSURANCE MARKET TRENDS

In this section, market trends and conditions are assessed against a variety of criteria, which may include market concentration, coverage availability, residual markets, premium volume, premium rates, and company financial condition.

LIFE AND HEALTH INSURANCE

Health Insurance

In plan year 2023, total Florida direct written premiums written for health insurance totaled $102.7 billion, with 122 companies actively offering coverage within the state. Insurers continued to expand their service areas by entering additional counties, thereby increasing consumer choice and enhancing competition across Florida's health insurance market.

Market concentration remains a defining characteristic of this sector. The top 20 insurers combined reported $92.7 billion in direct written premiums, accounting for more than 90% of total premiums written.

Medicare Supplement Insurance

Medicare supplement insurance provides coverage for certain healthcare costs not covered by original Medicare, including copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles. During 2023, zero consumer complaints were reported against insurers offering Medicare supplement products in Florida.

The Medicare supplement market remains concentrated, with one insurer accounting for nearly 97.5% of total premium market share. At the same time, this line of business continues to experience competitive pressure from Medicare Advantage products, which frequently attract consumers by offering additional benefits, and alternative premium structures. Total premiums written for Medicare supplement insurance in 2023 were $9.3 million.

Life Insurance

Life insurance products offered in Florida include term life, whole life, and various forms of universal life insurance. Overall, the life insurance sector continues to demonstrate stability, supported by ongoing regulatory oversight. In 2023, total premiums for life insurance in Florida totaled $12.5 billion, reflecting sustained demand for life insurance products across the state.

The Florida life insurance market remains concentrated, with the top 25 insurers accounting for approximately 66% of total premiums.

Annuities

Annuity considerations (premium) recorded another strong performance in 2023, continuing the positive trend observed in recent years. Total annuity considerations reached $37.7 billion, demonstrating sustained consumer interest in retirement income products.

This market segment remains highly concentrated, where the top 10 insurers combined accounted for more than 40% of total annuity considerations. Florida's large retiree population continues to support demand for annuity products as tools for income stability and longevity risk management.

Long-Term Care Insurance

On a national basis, long-term care insurance premiums have increased in response to higher claims experience and rising costs of care. In Florida, the Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR) has continued to address these challenges by approving rates for insurers that are phased-in incrementally to reduce the impact of rate increases. In many cases, these increases are accompanied by subsequent rate guarantee periods, during which policyholders are assured that no additional increases will be imposed. In addition, OIR has required insurers to provide policyholders with a range of benefit modification options intended to reduce the impact of premium increases and enhance consumer choice.

Total premiums written for long-term care insurance in 2023 were $45.5 million. Growth in total premiums continues to be driven primarily by pricing adjustments rather than expansion in the number of policies in force. Two insurers combined reported more than $45 million in premiums, representing more than 99% of the market share, reflecting continued concentration within this segment of the Florida insurance market.

PROPERTY AND CASUALTY INSURANCE

Homeowners' Insurance

Florida's homeowners' insurance market continued to grow in 2023, with 4.29 million policies in force. 79.9 percent or 3.4 million of the policies in force were covered by the Florida admitted market. The number of policies written by Citizens Property Insurance Corporation, the state's homeowners' insurer of last resort, rose to 17.5 percent of the total market share, with 749 thousand policies in force. The remaining 2.6 percent of policies in force were covered by the surplus lines market with 113 thousand policies in force. During 2023, many insurers experienced increased reinsurance costs. Based on reinsurance cost data collected from the Annual Reinsurance Data Call, on average, insurers bought 3.12% more reinsurance coverage with an increased risk-adjusted cost of approximately 27.03% from 2022.

The Florida insurance market faced significant challenges due to the frequency and severity of claims. These challenges were largely due to increased litigation, exacerbated by higher catastrophe claim losses as a result of multiple hurricanes over the past several years, and rising reinsurance costs as a result of a hardening reinsurance market. To address these challenges, Governor DeSantis signed SB 76 with an effective date of July 1, 2021, SB 2D with an effective date of May 26, 2022, SB 2A with an effective date on or after April 1, 2023, and at renewal for Citizens policies that renew on or after July 1, 2023, and SB 7052 with an effective date of July 1, 2023.

Private Passenger Auto Insurance

Florida's private passenger auto market continued to grow and remain competitive in 2023, with over 18 million licensed drivers and over $30 billion in direct written premium in 2023. The top five insurer groups comprise 77.7% of the direct written premium in 2023.

FLORIDA WRITTEN PREMIUM RANK	INSURANCE GROUP	2023 FLORIDA PPA DIRECT WRITTEN PREMIUM	MARKET SHARE
1	Progressive Insurance Group	$6,954,759,421	22.9%
2	Berkshire Hathaway Group	$6,428,571,937	21.1%
3	State Farm Insurance Group	$5,025,328,266	16.5%
4	Allstate Insurance Group	$3,127,502,365	10.3%
5	USAA	$2,114,360,543	7.0%

Flood Insurance

As conversations surrounding the federally administered National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) continue, OIR continued to prioritize the development of Florida's private flood insurance market. Alongside the NFIP, a thriving private insurance market provides wider, and in many cases, less expensive options to protect more US consumers, expand the awareness of the need for flood insurance, and spread the risk beyond the NFIP.

Florida is home to one of the largest, fastest growing private flood insurance markets in the U.S., with 90 insurers writing private flood, covering more than $264 million in direct written premium in 2023.

Workers' Compensation Insurance

In 2023, 288 privately-owned insurers actively wrote workers' compensation insurance in Florida, writing a total of $3.4 billion in premium. Moreover, during 2023, 16 insurers entered the Florida workers' compensation market, either as new companies or by adding the workers' compensation line of business to their certificate of authority. During 2023, 8 insurers that originally wrote workers' compensation exited the Florida market. These new entrants and voluntary withdrawals had no disruptive impact on the marketplace, as should be the case in a competitive market.

The 2023 annual National Council of Compensation Insurance rate filing, submitted in late August, proposed a statewide average rate decrease of 15.1 percent. A public rate hearing was held on October 5, 2023, and the OIR approved a statewide overall rate level decrease of 15.1 percent, which took effect on January 1, 2024. Florida's rates are 77.7 percent below what the rates were prior to the 2003 reforms.

Medical Malpractice Insurance

Florida is and has historically ranked as the third largest U.S. state in terms of total medical malpractice premium, with roughly $947 million in direct written premium for 2023.

Overall, Florida has a competitive medical malpractice insurance market. In 2023, Florida welcomed 5 new writers into the market. This helps promote a competitive marketplace, bolstering efforts to make sure reliable insurance products are available to Florida's medical professionals and entities at affordable prices.

EXAMINATIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS

OIR conducted a total of 1,162 market conduct preliminary investigations, investigations, and examinations during calendar year 2023. Potential violations that were investigated or examined related to: premium billing, policy rating, and underwriting errors; delays related to the timely payment of claims; failure to follow prescribed cancellation and nonrenewal practices; and the statutorily required examination of premium finance companies and Citizens Property Insurance Corporation.

The OIR Market Regulation team looks for early indicators of market issues that may eventually affect solvency or harm consumers. State insurance regulators have many different tools at their disposal to deal with potential violations of state insurance statutes and regulations such as a preliminary investigation, an investigation, and either target or comprehensive market conduct examinations.

- Preliminary investigations consist of an informal communication with an insurer regarding a concern received by a policyholder or other stakeholder. Preliminary investigations are used to quickly review and resolve referrals that may not lend themselves to an in-depth investigation. Preliminary investigations are concluded within a few days of assignment. Depending on the outcome of the preliminary investigation, the matter can be closed, monitored over time to ensure compliance, or result in an investigation or examination of the insurer.
- Investigations are a formal communication with an insurer regarding a concern received by a policyholder, other stakeholder, or to monitor the resolution of self-reported insurer issues. Investigations are usually related to issues that can affect a large number of policyholders instead of an isolated issue pertaining to a single policyholder. Investigations rely on written communication between market regulation and the insurer to document, identify, and resolve alleged violations of the Florida Insurance Code. Depending on the outcome of the investigation, additional regulatory action may be taken by OIR.
- Examinations (target or comprehensive) are a formal, in-depth, technical review and sampling of an insurers books and records to determine if the insurer's business practices are in compliance with the Florida Insurance Code. A target market conduct examination focuses on a specific line of business or a specific business practice. Target market conduct examinations are specific to the area of concern. A comprehensive market conduct examination will include a detailed review and sampling in all of the following areas: company operations and management; complaint handling; marketing and sales; producer licensing; policyholder service; underwriting and rating; and claims. Depending on the outcome of the examination, additional regulatory action may be taken by OIR.
